MOODUS MILL EMPLOYEE LOST THREE FINGERS Compensation Commissioner Makes Award for Paul Goginsky.

After a hearing that was recently held before him Compensation Commissioner Dr. James J. Donohue has given his finding and award in favor of the claimant, Paul Goginsky, of Moodus against the Undine Twine Mills of that place.

He directs that the company shall pay forthwith to the claimant through his attorney, the sum of $47.43, which is compensation for the specific loss of the first, second and third fingers, at the rate of $2.58 per week for 18 weeks, from May 1, to Sept. 3, 1915, inclusive; and that compensation at the same rate, $2.58, shall be paid to the claimant direct weekly for the remaining 15 weeks of the total number of weeks for the specific injury, viz, 33 weeks, said payments to begin on Sept. 10, 1915.

It is further awarded, adjudged and decreed that the respondent shall pay to the claimant forthwith, through his attorney, the sum of $30, which is compensation for the total disability at the rate of $5 weekly for 16 weeks from May 16, 1915, to and including Sept. 4, 1915, and that beginning on Sept. 5, 1915, compensation at the rate of $5 weekly shall be paid to claimant directly during the period of disability; and it is further awarded that the medical, surgical and hospital expenses incurred during the first 30 days shall be paid by the respondent. The injury upon which the claim is based occurred at the Undine mill on May 1, 1915.

While walking between the heads of some twisting machines the claimant sustained an injury to his left hand, caused by some twine which he was carrying over his arm being caught between a belt and a pulley, drawing his hand in and taking off the first, second and third fingers of his left hand, breaking his arm at the wrist and destroying about one-half of the three metacarpal bones. It was agreed that said injury arose out of and in the course of the claimant's employment by the respondent. It was agreed that the average weekly wages of the claimant were $2.25.

The claimant was taken immediately after the injury was received to the Hartford hospital, where the three fingers as stated above were amputated and where he received treatment from May 1 to July 22, 1915.

It was found that the injured hand was at the time of this hearing healing but that the claimant was still unable to do any work and probably would not be able to use the injured hand for some time on account of the injury to the metacarpal bones and the extreme tenderness there. It was suggested that an effort be made to secure for the employee some work which would be suitable and which he might be able to do at the expiration of the disability period at the same mill where he received his injury.

It is found that the claimant is entitled to compensation at the rate of one-half his average weekly wages, $2.25, for 33 weeks for the loss of the index finger, for 30 weeks for the loss of the second finger, and for 35 weeks for the loss of the third finger, making a total of 98 weeks for the specific injury. It is also found that the claimant is entitled to compensation at the rate of $5 a week during disability caused by the injury to and loss of about one-half the metacarpal bones in the left hand as hereinbefore described and the fracture of the left arm at the wrist.

Winter Timetable of C. V.

In the southbound trains the only change will be the train now due at 9:23, which will arrive at 11:20 a. m.

ANCESTORS WERE OF HUNTINGTON FAMILY Death of Mrs. D. W. Bradley at Chester—ill with Whooping Cough.

Mrs. Sarah C. Bradley, wife of Daniel W. Bradley, died at her home at Chester Sunday night at about 11:30. She had been ailing from whooping cough and it is thought she overtaxed her heart, bringing about her death.

Her maiden name was Sarah C. Higgins, daughter of Edward and Matilda Gardiner Higgins, she being a descendant of the well known Huntington family of Norwich. She was born in Norwich Jan. 2, 1837. She went to Chester when four years of age and with the exception of a little time spent in New Haven, Southington and Hartford, all her life has been spent in Chester. She married Mr. Bradley Nov. 27, 1855. She joined the Congregational church Nov. 7, 1858. Mrs. Bradley was until the time of an accident to one of her limbs, an active church worker. She leaves besides her husband an adopted son, Leslie.

ENUMERATION BLANKS MAILED BY COMPTROLLER Expected School Children's Names Will Show Big Gain.

Blanks for taking school enumerations were mailed on Monday from the state comptroller's office to most of the towns and cities of the state. On the first of March every year the state pays to the different towns and cities $2.25 for each school child between the ages of 4 and 16 years who shall have been reported to the comptroller.

Last year the names of 278,349 children were reported and $221,785 was paid out, which was considerably in excess of the payment made the previous year. It is expected that this year's list will have several thousand more than the list of last year contained. The enumeration begins in September.

TO RECOVER SAVINGS DEPOSITS

Nelson A. Brown Claims Herbert Brown Wrongfully Used Blank Forms—Slander Suit for $5,000—Congressman Freeman is Defendant in Two Suits Following Auto Accident—Various Other New Cases for Superior Court Filed

New suits for the September term of the superior court were filed on Tuesday with Clerk George E. Parsons as follows:

To Recover Deposits.

Nelson Anson Brown of North Stonington sues Herbert F. Brown of the same place, claiming $10,000 damages on the charge that the defendant on or about Feb. 28, 1915, had deposited $10,000 in the Norwich Savings bank, which the plaintiff and defendant had jointly owned and operated, and that the defendant had fraudulently transferred to the defendant's account. The claim is that Nelson Brown had induced Herbert Brown to withdraw the interest on the deposits and for that purpose had given Herbert Brown's eight blank forms, but that Herbert Brown filled out these forms so that he secured both the entire principal and the interest on the deposit books. The plaintiff asks for a court order constituting the defendant trustee of these sums for the plaintiff, or in the alternative, restraining their withdrawal or transfer by the defendant, an accounting and judgment for the amounts found due. Attachments have been upon $5,243 in the Chelsea Savings bank, $5,348.44 in the Norwich Savings bank, $3,074.47 in the Savings Bank of New London and $986.48 in the Marlboro Savings bank.

Slander Suit for $5,000.

Suit for $5,000 damages for slander is brought by Mary V. Bradley, New London against Carlucci Marione of the same place, who is charged with uttering in the Italian language on Aug. 19, 1915, words which meant that the defendant was an immoral woman and on that account had been forced to go to a hospital for treatment of her heart, bringing about her death. Estate at No. 32 Grand street, New London, has been attached.

Two Suits After Auto Accident.

Congressman Richard P. Freeman of New London is made the defendant in a suit for $500 damages brought by Michael M. Kelley of New London for injury caused to Kelley's jitney automobile in New London, by the car of Congressman Freeman, on April 17, 1914, by a collision with the Freeman automobile. The accident happened at the corner of Jay street and Huntington street, and was caused, it is claimed, by the Freeman automobile turning to the left.

In connection with the same accident, Frances Shea of New London sues Congressman Freeman for $3,000 damages. She was riding in the Kelley car, driven by Neil Kelley, and was on the way from the Backus hospital, where she had been operated upon, to her home, and had no other means of transportation. Her condition was greatly aggravated by the accident. It is claimed that her right hand was sprained and the shock caused her to be confined to her bed for many weeks, and she is still in a nervous state.

Desertion is Claim.

Divorce for desertion is sought by John A. Giesler of Colchester from Annie E. Giesler of Norwich, whose maiden name was Tucker. The marriage took place in Westerly on Oct. 3, 1908, and the desertion dates years later in November. The father asks the custody of a 6 year old daughter.

Widow Wants Accounting.
Hayden J. Giesler of New London, as executor of the will of Isaac Knowles, who died Oct. 7, 1907, is sued by Nellie Ann Knowles, widow of Isaac Knowles, for an accounting of $5,000 and seeks to secure from the executor an accounting for sums aggregating $5,000. Mrs. Knowles claims that her husband had received from her and had assumed control of as statutory trustee.

Groton Soldiers' Monument in Question.
An adjudication by the court upon questions which have arisen in the construction of the will of the late Robert A. Groton is pending. It is a suit brought by Frederick Bill and Charles E. White, trustees under the will of Groton, who is residuary legatees under the will, are named as defendants. Robert A. Groton died on Nov. 22, 1906, left the sum of $3,200 to erect a Soldiers' monument in Groton, on a certain site which Mrs. Gray would donate to the town, but the town of Groton voted on July 22, 1915, not to accept the gift. Since then the Groton Monument association has offered to permit the erection of such a monument at a point near the Groton monument. The trustees want to have the court direct them what they can do under the will regarding the erection of the Soldiers' monument. They now have in their hands the $3,200 needed for the monument.

$12,000 Foreclosure.
Foreclosure of a $12,000 mortgage given on Oct. 13, 1902, on real estate on Glenwood avenue, New London, by the late John Edgar Reymann of Philadelphia in a suit brought by James D. Lynch of New London, is pending. The mortgage was for $12,000, with interest, are due the city of New London on the property. William S. Reymann and Eleanor Carter Reymann, his wife, and two children, and Margaretta Crozier Reymann, widow of John E. Reymann, all of Philadelphia, are named as defendants. They now have in their hands the $3,200 needed for the monument.

Railroad Employee Appeals.
Alfred Allard of Putnam, an employee of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, takes an appeal from the finding of Compensation Commissioner Dr. J. J. Donohue in which the commissioner dismissed Allard's claim for compensation. Allard claimed an injury by slipping on the ice on Dec. 9, 1914, and striking himself while lifting heavy timber, causing an injury to his hip.

Husband Accused of Cruelty.
Bertha Pearl Clark of Lyme, whose maiden name was Tooker, is the petitioner for a divorce from Ansel C. Clark of Lyme, to whom she was married on Nov. 19, 1911. The wife claims intolerable cruelty since March 1, 1912, and desertion since June 14, 1912. She asks the custody of their 2 year old son.

Ledyard Man Wants Divorce.
Divorce on the grounds of adultery since December, 1912, with Louis R. Mitchell is asked by Stanton E. Hall from Ethel Fairfield Hall of Ledyard. The plaintiff and the defendant were married on Oct. 19, 1910.

To Collect Four Notes.
The collection of four notes, $1,000 dated Oct. 2, 1911, $750 dated Oct. 3, 1911, $1,000 dated Nov. 10, 1911, and $1,000 dated Nov. 22, 1911, all made by the Federal Biscuit Co. to the order of C. R. Boss and endorsed by Charles Royce Boss of New London and E. B. Grubb of New London, is pending. The suit is brought against Mr. Boss by the Bridgeport Trust Co.

Damages for Broken Leg.
Damages of $1,500 for a broken leg and other injuries are asked of Fred Halyburton of New London in a suit brought by Rosa Millson, who was struck by the Halyburton automobile on Aug. 9, 1915, on Howard street, near Woodbridge street. The defendant was driving the auto at the time.

Claim for $2,268.75.
Joseph J. Feeley of Boston, Robert Casson of Cambridge and Walter F. Earle of Cambridge, to whom was assigned a claim of Alley & Emery, Inc., against Katharine Sanford Landers and George M. Landers, husband and wife, of New Britain, have brought suit to collect the claim. The company did work in houses belonging to the defendants on Ocean avenue and Pequot avenue in New London in March, 1913. The whole sum was $9,268.87. Payments that have been made leave a balance claimed of $2,268.75.

Real Estate Partition.
Equitable partition of real estate on Chelsea street, New London, is asked by a suit brought against James Davidson of New London by Richard C. Davidson of New London, Emma E. Oesser of Lawrence, Louise Camp of Plainfield, N. J., Ellen F. Davidson, John M. Davidson and Grace E. Ramsey of Brooklyn, N. Y. Each of the litigants has an estate in fee in one undivided one-seventh part of the real estate.

Stonington Title in Doubt.
A court decree determining the rights of the parties and settling the title to property in Stonington is sought in a suit brought against Patrick Fagan, formerly of Old Mystic, but now of parts unknown, by Daniel C. Hallisey of Stonington, who is administrator of the estate of the late Margaret Gilligan. The property was the farm, 120 acres, owned by Daniel C. Hallisey in 1888. She lived there until the time of her death in March, 1915, but it is now found that the property was not properly signed and executed by Fagan and was not recorded on the records, which disclose an interest in Fagan conflicting with the Gilligan title.

Husband Now in Italy.
Rosario Garalino of Groton asks divorce from Carmela Garalino, now of Tusa, Messina, Italy, to whom she was married on April 9, 1903. She alleges that he has committed adultery in Italy between 1910 and 1913 with a person unknown. She asks for the custody of two children, aged 9 and 11.

Foreclosure of $2,500 Mortgage.
Foreclosure of $2,500 mortgage given on Aug. 5, 1904, on real estate in Groton is asked in a suit brought by the Savings Bank of New London against Edwin A. Card and others. The American Telephone and Telegraph Co., which claims a pole right on the land, is also named as defendant. It claims a $2,000 mortgage, Warren B. Burrows as conservator of Edwin A. Card, and Edward C. Pettit as executor of the bankrupt estate of Edward T. Card, are all made parties defendant.

WOMEN CONDUCTED REGIMENTAL DAY.
Novel Programme Carried Out at Mt. Calvary Church.

Sunday at Mt. Calvary Baptist church, was set apart by the pastor, Rev. J. H. Dennis, as the Women's Regimental Day. The presidents of each society of the church were designated as generals, each one having a badge of different colored ribbon. Mrs. Jane Simons, president of the Pastor's Relief society had lavender and after a short address by the president, she read a letter from Mrs. Nannie Jackson of the White Ribbon club had read for her color, and a letter from Mrs. Agnes Lacy these women gave their donations.

Miss Ida Simons, president of the Busy Bee society, had pink. This society comprises young girls and boys of the church and after prayer by the pastor, they sang, "The Banner of the Cross."

Mrs. M. E. McKnight, president of the Immanuel Missionary society, had green. A few remarks were made by the president and a hymn, "In Pressing Time was sung. The women then rose and gave their donations.

Miss Idella Scott, president of the Rose of New England Woman's league had red, white and blue. A short paper on the work was read by the president. This society while not attached to the church is hand in hand with the work of the church, believing and living up to the club motto, "Faithful work is never lost."

Great credit is due the women. In spite of the rain, 125 were present, seated with the different generals. The evening exercises opened by scripture reading by Mrs. M. L. Compton, and prayer was offered by Mrs. Frances Evans.

BACK TO LEDYARD ON EXTRADITION
Garofall Bruno Will Be Brought from New York.

Proceedings have been started for the extradition of Garofall Bruno who was arrested in New York Saturday charged with embezzlement of $1,800. Mrs. Jane Simons, president of the Pastor's Relief society, was read by the president and a hymn, "In Pressing Time was sung. The women then rose and gave their donations.

On the 9:25 train Tuesday evening, Undertakers Shea and Burke sent to New Haven the body of Mrs. Bridget Devlin, who died on Tuesday at the Norwich State hospital. She was 75 years of age.

The Boston Store BOSTON STORE BLANKETS

BLANKET LOGIC

Coal shoveled into a furnace at $7.00 a ton, or at any other price, ends in clinkers and ashes—a pair of Boston Store Blankets, however, full length and full width, warm and woolly, will go right on down the years for generations, furnishing warmth when and where it is needed most.

A pair of Blankets should not be chosen for the price consideration alone—there are few other household necessities in which quality and workmanship bear so great a part. If it is wool which you desire, the strength and length of fibre must be considered. If it is cotton, the weight, the permanency of finish and strength of weave must be well looked into.

BECAUSE
some cold and frosty night, when the wind seems to blow through and through the situation must be met and met at once, and the warmth must be there.

THE INTEGRITY OF BOSTON STORE
BLANKETS

If a blanket is all wool we will tell you so—if it is part cotton you will know it before you buy it—if it is all cotton we will not conceal the fact—because—each Blanket of its kind is the very best which we could find, and we sell it at the lowest price consistent with a fair profit.

EACH BLANKET IS A GENUINE BARGAIN FOR IT WILL GIVE 100 PER CENT VALUE AT ALL TIMES.

BLANKET FACTS AND PRICES

These Wool Blankets were all bought last February at a time when wool was much lower in price than it has been at any time since. Notwithstanding an increase in cost of from 50c to $1.00 a pair, we are willing to sell them at the price we intended at the time of purchase. Now is the time to buy while we are able to furnish them at the lower prices.

WOOL BLANKETS
Among the Blankets which have our unqualified approval are two grades which are nearly all-wool, of beautiful finish, and full bed size, that is 72 by 82 inches. They are sold by most merchants as absolutely all-wool, and to all practical extent and purposes they may be classed as such. Two grades at two very low prices.

"Never Mind
the Rain, Son"

The germ-proof, dust-proof, moisture-proof wax-sealed wrapping keeps the

New Post Toasties

in perfect condition.

But more important—these flakes are made by a new process that gives them a new form and a distinctive flavour, entirely different from other corn flakes.

In this new process, intense heat expands the interior moisture, producing little pearl-like "puffs," a distinguishing characteristic of the New Post Toasties.

These flakes have a body and firmness that don't mush down, even when cream or milk is added. Toasties come factory-fresh, as crisp and delicious as when they leave the big ovens.

Try Them and Note the New Flavour
